Herriot, James. All Creatures Great and Small. 1st St. Martin's Griffin ed. New York: St. Martin's Griffin, 2004. 442 pgs. ISBN: 9780312330859

An English veterinarian reminisces about his life, career, and animal patients in a small village.

Herriot, James. All Things Bright and Beautiful. 1st St. Martin's Griffin ed. New York: St. Martin's Griffin, 2004. 378 pgs. ISBN 9780312966195

A Yorkshire veterinarian describes the adventures and experiences of his career as he tends to sick cattle, pregnant ewes, ailing dogs, and other eccentric owners, in a celebration of the relationships between human and animal.

Herriot, James. All Things Wise and Wonderful. New York: St. Martin's Griffin, 2004, 1977. 432 pgs. ISBN: 9780312335281

In the midst of World War II, the Yorkshire veterinarian muses on past adventures through the Yorkshire dales, visiting with old friends and introducing scores of new characters—both human and animal.

Herriot, James. Every Living Thing. 1st St. Martin's Griffin ed. New York: St. Martin's Griffin, 2005, 1992. 342 pgs. ISBN: 9780312348526

In stories of wonder great and small, the author reintroduces many old friends like Mrs. Pumphrey, his partner Liefried Farnon, and his wife Helen. But there are wonderful new faces, too, especially his children, Rosie and Jimmy, and his latest assistant, Calum Buchanan. The author offers a collection of memoirs, describing the family and friends who share his life on the Yorkshire dales.

Herriot, James. It Shouldn't Happen to a Vet. London: Pan, 2006, 1972. 228 pgs. ISBN: 9780330443463

How on earth did James Herriot come to be sitting on a high Yorkshire moor, smelling vaguely go cows: James isn't sure, but he knows that he loves it. This second volume of memoirs contains tales of James' unpredictable boss Siegfried Farnon, his charming brother Tristan, animal mayhem, and his first encounter with a beautiful girl called Helen.

Herriot, James. James Herriot's Dog Stories. 1st St. Martin's Griffin ed. New York: St. Martin's Griffin, 2006. 246 pgs. ISBN: 9780312364526

In this heartwarming collection of favorite stories about dogs great and small, James Herriot tells us about his own dogs and all the wonderful people and animals we have come to love so much. Fifty memorable tales move us to both laughter and tears, and Herriot's personal introduction and notes make this tribute by a master storyteller to man's best friend a book to read, reread, and be treasured for years to come.

Herriot, James. Vet in a Spin. London: Pan, 2006, 1977. 223 pgs. ISBN: 9780330443579
Strapped into the cockpit of a Tiger Moth trainer, Herriot has swapped his wellingtons and breeches for sheepskin boots and a flying suit. But very soon the vet-turned-airman is grounded, and back to his old life in the Dales.

Herriot, James. Vet in Harness. London: Pan, 2006, 1974. 251 pgs. ISBN: 9780330443562
From the author whose books inspired the BBC series All Creatures Great and Small, this fourth volume of superb memoirs sees all the old Darrowby friends on top form—Siegfried thrashes around the practice, Tristan occasionally buckles down for finals and James is signed up for a local cricket team.

Herriot, James. Vets Might Fly. London: Pan, 2006, 1976. 239 pgs. ISBN: 9780330443586
A severe case of World War Two takes James Herriot away from his vet's life in the Dales and into a training camp somewhere in England. Square bashing in his uniform of RAF blue, he daydreams of the livestock he has left behind.

No one is better placed to write the biography of Alf Wight, alias James Herriot, than the son who worked alongside him in the veterinary practice during the time that James Herriot became a bestselling author. In this warm and often poignant memoir Jim Wight writes of a man who, despite his huge success as a writer, remained unchanged by wealth and fame; an essentially private person whose family had to share him with his millions of fans throughout the world.
